1) If we start the execution part the below window will be displayed

2) Once we fill the details and click the transfer button available there the amount we entered will be transferred to the given account and the completion message box is displayed.

3) After the transaction is successful the details are loaded in the database and to view them we can click on the "tot_list " button available there

Thank you